Dear Mr. Graff:

On the separate cover I am returning Galley pages 1 - 9, and would be glad to have the page proof as soon as possible.
You will note but little change is made.

I have written in the margin directions for the Dedication. You will understand that it is necessary to display same for the first page, and as it stands now it appears somewhat cramped.

Design for the cover, etc. will be forwarded with the return of the next proof.

Very truly yours,

Publication Dept.

Dear Mr. Graff:

We shall be glad to see you tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon.

Enclosed is copy for the invitation cards we desire to send out. We should be glad to have a proof set up in a way which you think would be most suitable; we suggest the enclosed style but think this may possibly be improved upon. For type - we should be glad to have you follow the style of The Women's Democratic Union card, a sample of which you sent us, and which we return together with the other cards submitted.

Very truly yours,
